Employment

- January 2008 - Present: Professor of Practice, Walter Cronkite School of Journalism and Mass Communication, Arizona State University; I visit Phoenix regularly, and co-teach online classes in digital media literacy
- January 2018-present: Co-founder of the ASU News Co/Lab, a collaborative lab working to improve the information ecosystem by focusing primarily on the demand side of the supply-demand equation. The lab's initial funders included the Facebook Journalism Project; Craig Newmark Philanthropies; Rita Allen Foundation; Democracy Fund; and News Integrity Initiative
- January 2006 - August 2009: Fellow, Berkman Center for Internet & Society, Harvard University; worked on media-related projects, with a focus on the developing phenomenon of citizen journalism
- January 2006 - December 2007: Lecturer and I.F. Stone Teaching Fellow, University of California, Berkeley, Graduate School of Journalism; co-taught courses in digital media and worked on expanding citizen journalism's reach and value
- January 2005 - December 2005: Founder, Grassroots Media Inc.; created a Bay Area online journalism project, Bayosphere, which proved unsuccessful and was later sold to Backfence Inc.
- September 1994 - January 2005: San Jose Mercury News, columnist, editor; as a columnist I wrote about business and technology including tech policy
- October 1999 - October 2004: Visiting lecturer, University of Hong Kong's Journalism and Media Studies Centre; for 5 weeks each fall, taught new-media class
- September 1988 - September 1994: Detroit Free Press, reporter; covered regional issues, including race relations, and technology
- January 1984 - September 1988: Kansas City Times, reporter; roaming correspondent covering social, political and economic trends, with a focus on rural America
- 1980 - 1983: Valley Voice and Times-Argus (Vermont), reporter
- 1971 - 1978: Musician, producer; self-employed; my band recorded two albums and toured widely, mostly around New England

Other Professional Activities (current/recent)

- Senior Fellow, Cyber Civilization Research Center, Keio University, Tokyo
- Frequent commentator on various online sites.

- Frequent speaker and guest lecturer at universities; in past few years this has included visits to (among others) Harvard University, the University of Hong Kong, Nanyang Technological University (Singapore), Tecnológico de Monterrey (Mexico), Nanjing University, Cairo University; Keio University (Tokyo), Yerevan (Armenia) State University, Washington and Lee University, University of Missouri, Louisiana State University, Lehigh University, University of Vermont, University of Zagreb and Champlain College
- Board of Directors: Signals Network, a nonprofit that works to help whistleblowers; formerly long-serving board member at First Amendment Coalition and other nonprofits
- Advisor to media-related companies and nonprofits; over the years those have included News Deeply, a collection of journalism ventures; FON, a collaborative Wi-Fi company based in Madrid; Global Voices Online, a nonprofit blogging network; and the Digital Media Law Project, a Berkman Center-based project (also a co-founder)
- Investor in several media companies including Wikia, a privately held consumer wiki service now known as Fandom.com
- Co-founder, Dopplr.com, an online travel service and “social atlas” (purchased by Nokia in October 2009)
