

ROBERT ANGLIN

robert.anglin@arizonarepublic.com | C: 602-316-8395 |

Summary

Award-winning investigative reporter with more than 25 years of experience holding public and private officials accountable. Exposed government corruption and complex fraud schemes in cross-platform projects for print, online and broadcast. Marketed stories via social media. Investigations have prompted reforms, state and federal inquiries, terminations and incarcerations. Helped consumers recover hundreds of thousands of dollars.

Highlights

- In-depth investigations
- Reporting/writing
- Skiptracing/ backgrounding
- Branded personality
- Broadcast experience
- Social media savvy
- Public speaking
- Database analysis
- Teacher/mentor
- Skilled interviewer

Accomplishments

- Defined the role of consumer protection watchdog when the beat launched in 2011.
- Expanded Call 12 for Action mission to include new cases, including health care, landlord-tenant and legal disputes.
- Helped drive record Call 12 numbers, including $2 million in 2014.
- Grew digital audience and Call 12 brand with online, print and broadcast stories targeting specific demographics.

Experience

Nov 2003 to Current

The Arizona Republic | 12 News | azcentral - Phoenix, AZ
Investigative reporter

Delivered in-depth stories on corruption involving government officials, public and private companies and individuals. Launched several public records fights. Built databases to analyze complex financial transactions. Collaborated with reporters.

Consumer investigations

Co-led the Call 12 for Action consumer protection team from 2011-2015. Report/write stories for online, print and broadcast. Use social media to market the Call 12 brand and connect with audience. Oversaw 40 volunteers, assist with calls and case management. Edit scripts/stories.

Jan 2008 to Current

Arizona State University - Phoenix, AZ
Adjunct professor, Walter Cronkite School of Journalism and Mass Communication
Develop lessons and lectures. Identify students for The Arizona Republic internship program.

Nov 1999 to Nov 2003

The Cincinnati Enquirer - Phoenix, AZ
Investigative reporter
Cincinnati City Hall reporter

Oct 1996 to Nov 1999

The Reno Gazette-Journal - Reno, NV
Investigative reporter
Reno/Sparks City Hall reporter

Jun 1994 to Oct 1996

The Oroville Mercury-Register - Oroville, CA

Awards

Pulitzer

- Finalist: Played key role in team coverage of the deaths of 19 firefighters (2013) and Tucson shooting rampage (2011)
- Nominations: Probate Court: A Troubled System (shared, 2010); Perfectly Legal, charity fraud (2009); Taser Stun gun investigation (2005); Cincinnati race riots (staff, 2001); Death-row Social Security scams (1996)

Investigative Reporters and Editors

- Phillip Meyer Award, honorable mention (shared, 2009)

National Headliner Award

- News, second place (shared, 2011)

Best of the West

- Business, first (2013)
- Project reporting, first (2010)

Arizona Press Club

- Virg Hill, Journalist of the Year (2004); finalist (2005, 2006)
- Don Bolles Award, investigative, first (2005, 2009); second (2004); third (2007)
- Business, first (2005); second (2014)
- Sports, second (shared, 2009)
- Public safety, first (2007)

Associated Press

- Arizona APME: Freedom of Information (2006); investigative, first (2005), second (2006), third (2006); feature, first (2005)
- AP Sports Editor Award (2004)
- AP News Executive Council, public service (1998); business, first (1998)
- APME Public Service award, finalist (1996)

Arizona Newspapers Association

- Investigative, first (shared, 2010)
- Freedom of Information (2008)
- Sustained coverage, first (2005)
- News story, second (2008)

Society of Professional Journalists

- Freedom of Information (2007)
- Ohio and Cincinnati SPJ, deadline reporting (2002)

Nevada Press Association

- Freedom of Information (1999, 2000)
- Investigative, first (1997, 1998); second (1999); fourth (1998)
- Community Service Award (1999)

California Newspapers Publishers Association

- Spot news, first (1996)

Senatorial citation for excellence in journalism: Awarded for my coverage of the World Trade Center collapse. On Sept. 11, 2001, I was blocks away from the Twin Towers and wrote first-person accounts from Ground Zero.

Education

Bachelor of Arts, Journalism San Francisco State University - San Francisco, CA	1994
Associate of Arts, Journalism Ohlone College - Fremont , CA	1991

Social media

Facebook

LinkedIn

Follow me on Twitter @robertanglen