Faculty affiliate, Center for Evolution and Medicine (CEM)

I. RESEARCH

Honors and Awards

2015 Andrew Carnegie Fellowship. One among 32 scholars nationally to receive an award of $200,000 for outstanding scholars in the social sciences and humanities addressing “current and future challenges to U.S. democracy and international order”

Grants Activity

PENDING

2025 Co-Investigator on “Risky meals: cultural and biological adaptations to reduce meat-borne disease risk” Leakey Foundation; (PI: Danson Mwangi Kareri; Co-PI: India Schneider-Crease); $30,000 [under review]
Recipient Institution – Kenya Institute of Primate Research

2024 Principal Investigator on “Using Natural Experiments to Identify the Causal Effects of Islamic Prosocial Norms on Everyday Cooperation Among Sama Marine Foragers”; Templeton Religion Trust (TRT); $149,856.00 [under review]

FUNDED

Tenure-track at ASU

External

2023 – 24 Principal Investigator on “Normative infrastructure as a platform for reinventing social institutions” from Cultural Evolution Society Transformation Fund (sponsored by John Templeton Foundation); $111,603 [completed]

2021 - 23 Co-Investigator on “Evaluating community perceptions and ethical considerations in genetics research in small-scale populations (PI: Anne Stone)” from National Institutes of Health; $424,910 [completed]

2020 - 21 Principal Investigator on “RAPID: How social norms impact COVID-19 transmission behaviors” from National Science Foundation; $66882 [completed]

- 2014 - 17 Investigator on “Evolutionary Foundations of Human Uniqueness: Recovering Patterns of Cognition, Cumulative Culture and Cooperation” (PI: William Kimbel) from John F. Templeton Foundation. Grant total: $4, 934,107; percent allocation: 11% [completed]
- 2014 - 15 Collaborator Investigator on “The Emergence of Prosocial Religions” (PI: Ara Norenzayan)” from John F. Templeton Foundation to University of British Columbia. Amount to ASU for subproject conducted by S. Mathew: CAD 16,675 [completed]

Internal

- 2015 - 21 Principal Investigator on "The evolution of human cooperation: field studies among Turkana pastoralists in Kenya", President's Strategic Initiative Funds; $495,385 [completed]

Doctoral

- 2010 Harry Frank Guggenheim Dissertation Fellowship
2009 NSF Doctoral Dissertation Improvement Grant
2009 Leakey Foundation Dissertation Research Grant
2007 Owen Aldis Award, International Society for Human Ethology
2004 - 07 NSF Graduate Research Fellowship

Publications

Authorship explanation:

- * Postdoctoral trainees (at the time published work was conducted)
-  Graduate students
- # Senior supervising author.
- † Joint first or last authorship with both authors contributing equally.
- ^a First author took lead. All other authors contributed equally with authorship order determined alphabetically.

First authorship indicates major contribution in data collection/developing of model, data analysis and manuscript preparation. On papers with postdocs or students, last authorship indicates leadership in conceiving of and designing the study, and mentoring of postdocs or students in conducting the study and writing the paper.
