RESEARCH EXPERIENCE

2022-2025    Graduate associate for EYEPlay ADAPT Project, Katie Bernstein, PhD; Scott Marley, PhD; Lauren van Huisstede, PhD

- Arizona State University, Mary Lou Fulton College for Teaching and Learning Innovation
- EYEPlay (Early Years Educators at Play) ADAPT (All Different Abilities Participate and Thrive) is a collaborative research study between ASU researchers, Childsplay Theatre Company, and a local school district. Our aim is to adapt the current EYEPlay program, a drama-based early literacy program, for preschool students with disabilities. As a graduate associate, I led coding meetings with teacher co-researchers, helped plan group meetings, trained/observed research assistants, assisted in direct student assessments, and contributed to poster/presentation creation.
- 2021-2025 Graduate associate for Bilingual Language and Literacy Lab (BiLL), M. Adelaida Restrepo, PhD, CCC-SLP
Arizona State University, Speech and Hearing Sciences
- Maze and syntax production in bilingual speakers with and without language impairment (LARRC/MBRC data). As a graduate associate, I transcribed and coded language samples, trained/observed research assistants, and contributed to poster/presentation creation.
