BIOGRAPHY:

Jennifer Linde is professor emeritus of Arizona State University (ASU). Her career at ASU included serving as artistic director of The Empty Space (theatre), teaching professor and director of online learning in the Hugh Downs School of Human Communication (HDS). Her teaching spanned many topics with specific expertise in performance studies and civil communication. In her administrative positions, she oversaw the development and growth of three undergraduate online programs for the HDS, and led the artistic vision and production processes for The Empty Space. Linde participated in the design and development of Civil Dialogue® and has used it extensively in her teaching and community-based projects. She is a co-founder of The Institute for Civil Dialogue and currently serves as its president. In 2017 she co-founded The Storyscope Project, a story circle program that promotes inclusivity and listening. She is the co-author of Hot Topics, Cool Heads: A Handbook for Civil Dialogue.
