
Norma Rodriguez

5970 W. Park Ave.
Chandler, AZ. 85226
(480) 221-8650

EDUCATION:

ARIZONA STATE UNIVERSITY

Tempe, AZ

Master of Science, Communication Disorders, May 1995

Bachelor of Science, Business May 1986

EXPERIENCE:

A WORLD WITH WORDS SPEECH PATHOLOGY SERVICES

2001-Present

Planning and administering speech language pathology evaluations; implementing appropriate treatment; documenting provision of care of pediatric and adult population with communication deficits due to a variety of diagnosis such as speech-language disorders, adult neurogenic disorders, fluency disorders, social communication and autism, and motor speech planning

Accent reduction with adults of multicultural populations

Responsible for direct client care in clinic and supervision of licensed speech language pathologists, CFY speech pathologists, and student interns from various universities.

Scheduling of clients, performing billing for various insurance plans, and ordering supplies, and all that is necessary for an effective and efficient running clinic.

Marketing to physician's offices, educational sector, and private sector.

MESA COMMUNITY COLLEGE

2004-2007

Taught COM 080 Conversational Circles and Com 120 Pronunciation of American Speech, as well as substituted for Com 100

DESERT SAMARITAN MEDICAL CENTER

1998 - 2002

Assessment of toddlers and children with speech/language disorders due to receptive/expressive language delay, phonological disorder, apraxia of speech, and autism.

EAST VALLEY SPEECH PATHOLOGY

1995 - Present

Assessment and treatment of adolescents, children and toddlers with speech/language disorders due to receptive/expressive language delay phonological disorder and apraxia of speech, in a variety of settings.

Assessment and treatment of adults and geriatric population with speech, language and cognitive deficits including aphasia, dysarthria, dysphasia and dementia, in a variety of settings.

ORGANIZATIONS / DISTINCTIONS:

- Research/Clinical Traineeship, 1993-1995
- Graduate Academic Scholarship, 1993-1995
- Mentor for Minority Students, 1993-1995